

JESUS TEACHES US TO CARE FOR OTHERS

One day, Jesus told this story. He said, “Once there was a man who was going from Jerusalem to Jericho. On the way, robbers stopped him. They beat him up, took his things, and left him almost dead.

“Soon an important man came by, but he did not stop to help the hurt man. Later, another man came down the road. He did not help, either—he just kept walking.

“But then, a Samaritan—a man who was from a different place—came by. When the Samaritan man saw the hurt man, he felt sorry for the man. He cleaned up the man’s wounds, put him on his donkey, and took him to an inn. He told the innkeeper to take care of the hurt man. He even gave the innkeeper money to pay for the hurt man to stay there.”

At the end of the story, Jesus asked who was a neighbor to the hurt man. Someone said, “The one who showed mercy to him!”

Jesus said, “Go help other people and show them mercy just like the Samaritan did!”

Icon courtesy of Iconographics (www.theologic.com)

WHAT DO YOU THINK?

1. In the story that Jesus told, what happened to the man who was traveling?
2. Did the important man help the hurt man? Who did?
3. Was the Samaritan a good neighbor to the hurt man? How do you know?
4. This story is sometimes called “The Good Samaritan.” Who was good in the story?
5. What can you do to be like the Good Samaritan?

Let Us Attend! is published by the Antiochian Orthodox Department of Christian Education (www.antiochian.org). If you would like information on our present programs and future initiatives, contact aodce@antiochian.org. We gratefully acknowledge support from the Order of St. Ignatius which funds, in part, the work of the Department.

Visit www.antiochian.org/LetUsAttend for free downloads related to this Gospel story: mp3 audio, coloring sheet, script for readers’ theater, and handouts for preschool through high school. Find us on Facebook at www.facebook.com/AODCE.

Icon courtesy of Iconographics (www.theologic.com)

Let Us Attend! is published by the Antiochian Orthodox Department of Christian Education (www.antiochian.org). If you would like information on our present programs and future initiatives, contact aodce@antiochian.org. We gratefully acknowledge support from the Order of St. Ignatius which funds, in part, the work of the Department.

Pre-12

Visit www.antiochian.org/LetUsAttend for free downloads related to this Gospel story: mp3 audio, coloring sheet, script for readers' theater, and handouts for preschool through high school.
Find us on Facebook at www.facebook.com/AODCE.

JESUS TEACHES US TO CARE FOR OTHERS

One day, Jesus told this story. He said, “Once there was a man who was going from Jerusalem to Jericho. On the way, robbers stopped him. They beat him up, took his things, and left him almost dead.

“Soon an important man came by, but he did not stop to help the hurt man. Later, another man came down the road. He did not help, either—he just kept walking.

“But then, a Samaritan—a man who was from a different place—came by. When the Samaritan man saw the hurt man, he felt sorry for the man. He cleaned up the man’s wounds, put him on his donkey, and took him to an inn. He told the innkeeper to take care of the hurt man. He even gave the innkeeper money to pay for the hurt man to stay there.”

At the end of the story, Jesus asked who was a neighbor to the hurt man. Someone said, “The one who showed mercy to him!”

Jesus said, “Go help other people and show them mercy just like the Samaritan did!”

Icon courtesy of Iconographics (www.theologic.com)

WHAT DO YOU THINK?

1. In the story that Jesus told, what happened to the man who was traveling?
2. Did the important man help the hurt man? Who did?
3. Was the Samaritan a good neighbor to the hurt man? How do you know?
4. This story is sometimes called “The Good Samaritan.” Who was good in the story?
5. What can you do to be like the Good Samaritan?

Let Us Attend! is published by the Antiochian Orthodox Department of Christian Education (www.antiochian.org). If you would like information on our present programs and future initiatives, contact aodce@antiochian.org. We gratefully acknowledge support from the Order of St. Ignatius which funds, in part, the work of the Department.

Visit www.antiochian.org/LetUsAttend for free downloads related to this Gospel story: mp3 audio, coloring sheet, script for readers’ theater, and handouts for preschool through high school. Find us on Facebook at www.facebook.com/AODCE.

JESUS TEACHES US TO CARE FOR OTHERS

At that time, a lawyer stood up to put Jesus to the test, saying, “Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?” Jesus said to him, “What is written in the law? How do you read?” And the lawyer answered, “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbor as yourself.” And Jesus said to him, “You have answered right; do this, and you will live.”

But the lawyer, desiring to justify himself, said to Jesus, “And who is my neighbor?” Jesus replied, “A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and he fell among robbers, who stripped him and beat him, and departed, leaving him half dead. Now by chance a priest was going down that road; and when he saw him he passed by on the other side. So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan, as he journeyed, came to where he was; and when he saw him, he had compassion, and went to him and bound up his wounds, pouring on oil and wine, then set him on his own beast and brought him to an inn, and took care of him. And the next day he took out two denarii and gave them to the innkeeper, saying, ‘Take care of him; and whatever more you spend, I will repay you when I come back.’ Which of these three, do you think, proved neighbor to the man who fell among the robbers?” The lawyer said, “The one who showed mercy on him.” And Jesus said to him, “Go and do likewise.”

Icon courtesy of Iconographics (www.theologic.com)

WHAT DO YOU THINK?

1. Who asks Jesus a question?
2. What does a lawyer need to know a lot about in order to do his or her job?
3. The lawyer in this gospel would have known a lot about the law God gave to his people through Moses. Can you list any of the commandments God gave to Moses? (Hint: check Exodus 20:1-17)
4. How does the lawyer summarize the law?
5. How did Jesus answer the question, “And who is my neighbor?”
6. What can you do this week to show that you love God with all your heart? How can you show that you love your neighbor as yourself?
7. Challenge yourself to be like the Samaritan—helping others you see who need help, even if they are unkind or different from you.

Let Us Attend! is published by the Antiochian Orthodox Department of Christian Education (www.antiochian.org). If you would like information on our present programs and future initiatives, contact aodce@antiochian.org. We gratefully acknowledge support from the Order of St. Ignatius which funds, in part, the work of the Department.

Pre-12

Visit www.antiochian.org/LetUsAttend for free downloads related to this Gospel story: mp3 audio, coloring sheet, script for readers' theater, and handouts for preschool through high school. Find us on Facebook at www.facebook.com/AODCE.

JESUS TEACHES US TO CARE FOR OTHERS

Characters: Narrator, Lawyer, Jesus, Samaritan

Narrator: At that time, a lawyer stood up to put Jesus to the test, saying,

Lawyer: Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?

Narrator: Jesus said to him,

Jesus: What is written in the law? How do you read?

Narrator: And the lawyer answered,

Lawyer: You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbor as yourself.

Narrator: And Jesus said to him,

Jesus: You have answered right; do this, and you will live.

Narrator: But the lawyer, desiring to justify himself, said to Jesus,

Lawyer: And who is my neighbor?

Narrator: Jesus replied,

Jesus: A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and he fell among robbers, who stripped him and beat him, and departed, leaving him half dead. Now by chance a priest was going down that road; and when he saw him he passed by on the other side. So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan, as he journeyed, came to where he was; and when he saw him, he had compassion, and went to him and bound up his wounds, pouring on oil and wine, then set him on his own beast and brought him to an inn, and took care of him. And the next day he took out two denarii and gave them to the innkeeper, saying,

Samaritan: Take care of him; and whatever more you spend, I will repay you when I come back.

Jesus: Which of these three, do you think, proved neighbor to the man who fell among the robbers?

Narrator: The lawyer said,

Lawyer: The one who showed mercy on him.

Narrator: And Jesus said to him,

Jesus: Go and do likewise.

Let Us Attend! is published by the Antiochian Orthodox Department of Christian Education (www.antiochian.org). If you would like information on our present programs and future initiatives, contact aodce@antiochian.org. We gratefully acknowledge support from the Order of St. Ignatius which funds, in part, the work of the Department.

Visit www.antiochian.org/LetUsAttend for free downloads related to this Gospel story: mp3 audio, coloring sheet, script for readers' theater, and handouts for preschool through high school. Find us on Facebook at www.facebook.com/AODCE.

WHO IS MY NEIGHBOR?

At that time, a lawyer stood up to put Jesus to the test, saying, “Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?” Jesus said to him, “What is written in the law? How do you read?” And the lawyer answered, “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbor as yourself.” And Jesus said to him, “You have answered right; do this, and you will live.”

But the lawyer, desiring to justify himself, said to Jesus, “And who is my neighbor?” Jesus replied, “A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and he fell among robbers, who stripped him and beat him, and departed, leaving him half dead. Now by chance a priest was going down that road; and when he saw him he passed by on the other side. So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan, as he journeyed, came to where he was; and when he saw him, he had compassion, and went to him and bound up his wounds, pouring on his oil and wine, then set him on his own beast and brought him to an inn, and took care of him. And the next day he took out two denarii and gave them to the innkeeper, saying, ‘Take care of him; and whatever more you spend, I will repay you when I come back.’ Which of these three, do you think, proved neighbor to the man who fell among the robbers?” The lawyer said, “The one who showed mercy on him.” And Jesus said to him, “Go and do likewise.”

Icon courtesy of Iconographics (www.theologic.com)

WHAT DO YOU THINK?

1. Who asks Jesus a question?
2. What does a lawyer need to know a lot about in order to do his or her job?
3. The lawyer in this gospel would have known a lot about the law God gave to his people through Moses. Can you list any of the commandments God gave to Moses? (Hint: check Exodus 20:1-17)
4. How does the lawyer summarize the law?
5. How did Jesus answer the question, “And who is my neighbor?”
6. What can you do this week to show that you love God with all your heart? How can you show that you love your neighbor as yourself?
7. Challenge yourself to be like the Samaritan—helping others you see who need help, even if they are unkind or different from you.

Let Us Attend! is published by the Antiochian Orthodox Department of Christian Education (www.antiochian.org). If you would like information on our present programs and future initiatives, contact aodce@antiochian.org. We gratefully acknowledge support from the Order of St. Ignatius which funds, in part, the work of the Department.

Visit www.antiochian.org/LetUsAttend for free downloads related to this Gospel story: mp3 audio, coloring sheet, script for readers' theater, and handouts for preschool through high school. Find us on Facebook at www.facebook.com/AODCE.

WHO IS MY NEIGHBOR?

At that time, a lawyer stood up to put Jesus to the test, saying, “Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?” Jesus said to him, “What is written in the law? How do you read?” And the lawyer answered, “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbor as yourself.” And Jesus said to him, “You have answered right; do this, and you will live.”

But the lawyer, desiring to justify himself, said to Jesus, “And who is my neighbor?” Jesus replied, “A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and he fell among robbers, who stripped him and beat him, and departed, leaving him half dead. Now by chance a priest was going down that road; and when he saw him he passed by on the other side. So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan, as he journeyed, came to where he was; and when he saw him, he had compassion, and went to him and bound up his wounds, pouring on oil and wine, then set him on his own beast and brought him to an inn, and took care of him. And the next day he took out two denarii and gave them to the innkeeper, saying, ‘Take care of him; and whatever more you spend, I will repay you when I come back.’ Which of these three, do you think, proved neighbor to the man who fell among the robbers?” The lawyer said, “The one who showed mercy on him.” And Jesus said to him, “Go and do likewise.”

Icon courtesy of Iconographics (www.theologic.com)

WHAT DO YOU THINK?

1. Who asks Jesus a question?
2. What does a lawyer need to know a lot about in order to do his or her job?
3. The lawyer in this gospel would have known a lot about the law God gave to his people through Moses. Can you list any of the commandments God gave to Moses? (Hint: check Exodus 20:1-17)
4. How does the lawyer summarize the law?
5. How did Jesus answer the question, “And who is my neighbor?”
6. What can you do this week to show that you love God with all your heart? How can you show that you love your neighbor as yourself?
7. Challenge yourself to be like the Samaritan—helping others you see who need help, even if they are unkind or different from you.

Let Us Attend! is published by the Antiochian Orthodox Department of Christian Education (www.antiochian.org). If you would like information on our present programs and future initiatives, contact aodce@antiochian.org. We gratefully acknowledge support from the Order of St. Ignatius which funds, in part, the work of the Department.

Visit www.antiochian.org/LetUsAttend for free downloads related to this Gospel story: mp3 audio, coloring sheet, script for readers' theater, and handouts for preschool through high school. Find us on Facebook at www.facebook.com/AODCE.