

Philip Saliba Bio

Philip Saliba is a Managing Director at Deutsche Bank, heading the bank's restructuring finance practice within the Leveraged Finance platform for the last 6 years. In his current role, Philip has arranged and syndicated over $35 billion of loan and high yield bond financing for distressed companies, leading notable transactions for Hertz, Intelsat, Frontier Communications, Weatherford, and Toys R Us. Philip has worked as a corporate finance banker for Deutsche Bank and its predecessor Bankers Trust for over 25 years.

Philip graduated with high honors from Lehigh University with a B.A. in Economics, and he received his MBA from Columbia Business School where he earned Beta Gamma Sigma honors. He is currently serving as a four-time elected member of the Board of Trustees of the Antiochian Christian Orthodox Archdiocese of North America and as an appointed member of the Investment Committee for Worcester Academy. Philip and his family reside in Westport, CT.